Joseph Pease Place is a circular outdoor public space and entertainment location. It is situated in the heart of the town centre surrounded by national High Street stores.

This central location offers a flexible, prime space to showcase your business.

The Market Square is a large, traditional space with easy access. It offers a fantastic opportunity for you to come and display and showcase your products/services.

During the summer season events are programmed in the square. It also boasts a collection of outdoor pavement cafes for the public.

This fully pedestrianised and accessible square is overlooked by the town's leisure complex and market hall.
